Assumption University Announcement

No.11/2021

Subject: Teaching and learning mode for Semester 1/2021 (June 2021 - October 2021), and alleviation measures for AU students in undergraduate programs during the proliferation of the COVID-19 pandemic.

With the recently announced restriction of the Ministry of Higher Education, Science, and Innovation (MHESI) on the usage of educational institutions' teaching and learning facilities as a result of the current repaid proliferation of infected COVID-19 cases.

1. Assumption University deems it imperative to utilize the online teaching and learning mode in Semester 1/2021 (June 2021 - October 2021), until the MHESI grants permission to utilize the facilities, after which, in such case, the teaching and learning activities will be altered to the "on-premise/in-class" mode.

2. As for the measures to alleviate financial hardship facing parents and AU students, Assumption University would:

2.1 refund 25% of the University fees to students who registered for classes in Semester 2/2020, Summer/2020, and Semester 1/2021, and

2.2 allow students facing financial problems to petition for making installment payments for courses registered in Semester 1/2021. The petition can be submitted at the Office of the University Registrar.
